

KEYS TO INVESTMENT SUCCESS FROM DAVID RUBENSTEIN

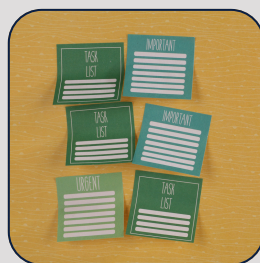

Do not risk more than you can afford to lose.

Be cautious with your investments. Get good advisors.

Build wealth with the mindset that the impact should be bigger and greater than the amount of money itself.

Never put all your eggs in one basket, no matter how attractive the basket is. Diversify your investments.

Having control of your money is one thing. Letting your money have control over you is another. Be wise about your priorities.

Investment success is a result of learning the fundamentals and staying focused on those fundamentals, even as you continue to learn and grow.
